ARTICLE IV. Masonic Information

SECTION S4.01 Freemasonry and Religion.

Basic Principles. Freemasonry is not a religion, nor is it a substitute for religion. It requires of its members belief in a God as part of the obligation of every responsible adult, but advocates no sectarian faith or practice. Masonic ceremonies include prayers, both traditional and extempore, to reaffirm each individual's dependence on a supreme being and to seek divine guidance. Freemasonry is open to men of any faith, but religion may not be discussed at Masonic meetings.

The Supreme Being. Masons believe that there is one God and that people employ many different ways to seek, and to express what they know of, God. Masonry primarily uses the appellation, "Grand Architect of the Universe, " and other non-sectarian titles, to address Deity. In this way, persons of different faiths may join together in prayer, concentrating on a Supreme Being, rather than differences among themselves. Masonry believes in religious freedom and that the relationship between the individual and God is personal, private, and sacred.

Volume of the Sacred Law. An open volume of the Sacred Law, "the rule and guide of life," is an essential part of every Masonic meeting, The Volume of the Sacred Law to a Christian is the Bible; to Freemasons of other faiths, it is the book held holy by them.

The Oath of Freemasonry. The obligations taken by Freemasons are sworn on the volume of the Sacred Law. They are undertakings to follow the principles of Freemasonry and to keep confidential a Freemason's means of recognition. The much-discussed "penalties," judicial remnants from an earlier era, are symbolic, not literal. They refer only to the pain any honest man should feel at the thought of violating his word.

Freemasonry Compared with Religion. Freemasonry lacks the basic elements of religion. (a) It has no dogma or theology, no wish or means to enforce religious orthodoxy. (b) It offers no sacraments. (c) It does not claim to lead to salvation by works, by secret knowledge, or by any other means. The secrets of Freemasonry are concerned with modes of recognition, not with the means of salvation.

Freemasonry Supports Religion. Freemasonry is far from indifferent toward religion. Without interfering in religious practice, it expects each member to follow his own faith and to place his Duty to God above all other duties. Its moral teaching are acceptable to all religions. (1996)

SECTION S4.02 Masonic Clubs. Any group of Masons of this Jurisdiction, who are in good standing, may form a club designated by a name which includes the words "Masonic Club" or "Masonic Association," providing its by-laws are submitted to the Grand Master for approval, and the same are approved by him. Any such group forming such a club may incorporate, provided that the suggested Articles of Incorporation and By-laws be first submitted to and approved by the Chairman of the Jurisprudence Committee and the Grand Master. The same shall only be a voluntary association of the members. Any such club, when formed, shall operate its club and its clubroom or rooms, if any, or their place of meeting with the same decorum as required by a Lodge of Masons, so that no unfavorable reflection will result against Masonry. Be it further provided that all laws, rules and regulations of the Grand Lodge governing the conduct of Constituent Lodges in this Jurisdiction, as contained elsewhere in the Minnesota Masonic Code, will be strictly followed and that it follow all rules and regulations that may be made by the Grand Master in giving such permission and authority. Any violation of the above having occurred, the Grand Master may rescind the permission and authority given by him.

SECTION S4.03 A Standing Resolution Concerning Masonic Intercourse. WHEREAS, ARTICLE II. Masonic Laws, Section C2.03 (17) states: That masonic intercourse with a clandestine, suspended or expelled Mason is a breach of duty and an offense against Masonic law, and WHEREAS the Grand Lodge of Minnesota has not enumerated the meaning of masonic intercourse for purposes of clarification; NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that: A Mason shall not have Masonic communication with: A. Any person who is not a member of a Masonic Lodge chartered by or holding allegiance to a Grand Lodge recognized by the Grand Lodge of Minnesota; or B. A Mason under sentence of being expelled or suspended. While outside the State of Minnesota, a Mason may have Masonic communication with any person legally present at the tiled meeting of a Masonic Lodge or Masonic Organization chartered by or holding allegiance to a Grand Lodge recognized by the Grand Lodge of Minnesota. This exception includes the tiled meetings of any such recognized Grand Lodge. During a tiled meeting, a Mason may have Masonic communication with any person legally present even though such a person is not a member of a Masonic Lodge chartered by or holding allegiance to a Grand Lodge recognized by the Grand Lodge of Minnesota. This exception applies only during such a tiled meeting and at no other time. While in any State or Territory or Province outside the State of Minnesota, a Mason shall not have Masonic communication with any person who is a member of a Masonic Lodge which has been chartered by or holds allegiance to a Grand Lodge which is not recognized by the Grand Lodge which we recognize with jurisdiction over that State or Territory or Province. No Masonic Organization in the Jurisdiction of Minnesota may permit any man suspended or expelled as a Mason in this or any other Jurisdiction to retain membership in it, or attend its tiled meetings. (Adopted 2003)

ARTICLE V. Emeritus Status

Campbell, in honor of his long and faithful service to the Grand Lodge of Minnesota, and particularly because of his world class service in executing the duties and responsibilities of the office of Grand Secretary, is hereby designated as Grand Secretary Emeritus of the Grand Lodge of Minnesota. THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT SECTION G13.27 be amended to read "No Lodge shall make any commitment for the purchase or lease of land on which to construct its Lodge Building or for the construction of any other building thereon, or the furnishing of the same, until the plans and specifications and the cost of erection thereof in detail, together with a copy of the lease, if acquisition is by lease, and a definite plan for the financing of such purchase, lease and construction has been approved in writing by the Grand Master; provided however, that the above shall not prohibit a Lodge which owns its own building from making repairs to the same where the cost thereof does not exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00).

2023 RESOLUTION NO. 5
Amendment to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge
Legislation for the creation of the Grand Master's Lodge

Whereas currently, at the closure of a Lodge without consolidation, Brethren are left without Masonic affiliation; and

Whereas a lack of Masonic affiliation will affect these Brethren negatively; and

Whereas the Grand Lodge of Minnesota, AF&AM desires to retain these Brethren as members and ensure that they are well served;

Therefore, let it be resolved that the Constitution, Article 9, Section C9.01 shall be amended to add part (D) with the following language:

C9.01 (d) GRAND MASTER'S LODGE.

The Grand Master's Lodge is a special classification of Constituent Lodge which shall be subject to all provisions of this Code applicable to Constituent Lodges, except as follows:

1. There shall be only one Grand Master's Lodge in this Jurisdiction, and it shall be chartered with the name "Grand Master's Lodge" and numbered 1853.
2. Membership shall consist only of:
 - a. As ex-officio members, the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, the Senior Grand Warden, the Junior Grand Warden, the Grand Treasurer and the Grand Secretary
 - b. Any Entered Apprentices, Fellow Crafts and Master Masons who are not dual or plural members of another Lodge at the time that their Lodge's charter is surrendered or revoked.
3. Membership in the Grand Master's Lodge shall cease upon taking a Demit therefrom or by obtaining membership in another Constituent Lodge within the jurisdiction.
4. The Grand Master's Lodge shall hold no meetings nor confer any degrees but may request courtesy work for its Entered Apprentices and Fellow Crafts in another Lodge.
5. The Grand Master's Lodge shall not be entitled to representation in Grand Lodge or any vote therein.

And that Article 15 Section G15.07 be amended as follows:

~~SECTION G15.07 Whenever a Lodge surrenders its charter, its members shall be given certificates of non-affiliation by the Grand Secretary, if they are in good standing and clear on the books and no charges have been filed against them; and each member shall be notified at his last known address as to his indebtedness, if any. Upon payment of said indebtedness, said certificate of non-affiliation may then be issued.~~ the Grand Secretary shall automatically transfer all Brethren, who meet the requirements for membership, to the Grand Master's Lodge.

(a) Members of the Grand Master's Lodge shall pay annual dues in the amount of the current per-capita plus $20 per annum. Brethren who had been life members of their Lodge at closure shall retain such membership while members of this Lodge.

2023 Resolution No. 6
General Regulations Amendment
Grand Lodge Annual Per Capita Increase

Whereas the last increase in the Grand Lodge per capita was approved in 2017. This increase brought the per capita payment to its present $40.00 per member, and

Whereas the total membership in Minnesota Constituent Lodges has continued to decline every year since 1960, now resulting in yearly declining revenue, and

Whereas Grand Lodge program and operating expenses continue to increase every year due to inflation, and

Whereas a responsible fiscal policy requires that the Grand Lodge operate within annual per capita revenue and earnings from the Reserve Fund; and not spend the principal of the Reserve Fund so that the Reserve Fund remains intact for future generations, and

Whereas it is the desire of the Grand Lodge to continue to provide quality programs and services to its members and constituent lodges, and

Whereas financial projections of the Grand Lodge indicate regular increases in the Grand Lodge per capita are needed to ensure ongoing fraternal operations and responsible financial management.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that beginning with the dues payable for the year of 2024 by every member and reported to be in good standing by a lodge on its 2023 annual return, due at the Grand Lodge office on January 15, 2024, the amount of per capita remitted to the Grand Lodge of Minnesota shall be $70.00; and

That SECTION G3.01 subsection (d) of the Minnesota Masonic Code shall be amended as follows:

Section G3.01 (d) The per capita dues of the Grand Lodge shall be structured as follows:

1. From every member reported in good standing by a Lodge in its last Annual Return, ~~Forty Dollars ($40.00)~~ Seventy Dollars ($70.00); and
2. If the Grand Lodge General Fund financial performance, as reported at the Annual Communication for the previous fiscal year, requires a transfer from the reserve fund in excess of 2% of the reserve fund's average balance as reported in the last three Annual Communications, the amount of per capita remitted to the Grand Lodge of Minnesota will be increased by 10%, rounded up to the next whole dollar, beginning with the dues payable for the ensuing calendar year.
3. However, any member, who, being in the armed forces of the United States, has become a prisoner of war or has been declared missing in action, during said period or any part thereof. Refunds or adjustments of overpayment of per capita shall be permitted, but not to exceed two (2) years prior to the date of request. A refund can be requested by a Lodge, from the Grand Lodge, for per capita payments that were made for members who were stricken for non-payment of dues, but not to exceed two (2) years prior to the date of request.
